

Women's Club at UCF, Inc.
Fall Meeting
Fairwinds Alumni Center, UCF campus
Sept 18, 2017
11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

WELCOME:

Following an opportunity for attendees to network and view special interest posters, President Teresa Riedel extended a warm welcome to all.

The luncheon planning committee Co-chairpersons, Mindy Moore and Roberta Shoopman, as well as committee members, Lynn Moharam and Kathy Weise, were recognized.

“Originals” members who were present at the luncheon were recognized.

Vice President Margaret Osteen introduced New Members attending:

Lunch was served and members had an opportunity to engage in discussion with table mates.

PROGRAM:

UCF Women's Basketball Coach Katie Abrahamson-Henderson (Coach Abe) gave an inspiring presentation on the importance of mentoring women, especially those who are young. She gave excellent examples of how she and her coaching staff serve as role models and implement techniques for building confidence in members of the UCF women's basketball team. She challenged everyone in attendance to be mindful of mentoring others in our professions or other life situations we encounter. She also challenged each of us to show our support for women's sports at UCF and elsewhere by attending games.
